

Communication and Language

- Learn new vocabulary featured in traditional tales
- Name the characters in stories
- Re-tell and re-enact the different stories using story language
- Invent role play and imaginative scenarios
- Talk about similarities and differences in the stories, for example the wolf in The Three Little Pigs and Little Red Riding Hood

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- Build friendships by sharing books together
- Talk about how the characters behave
- Talk about how the characters feel
- Share their own ideas with confidence
- Take turns whilst sharing books and story puppets and resources

Physical Development

- Move freely when playing imaginatively
- Negotiate space when re-enacting stories
- Build with a range of equipment to create story scenes and
- Begin to develop fine motor skills when mark making/writing about the stories

Literacy

- Talk about pictures in stories
- Develop knowledge of how stories are structured
- Develop letter sound/grapheme correspondence
- Practise oral segmenting and blending of words
- Segment and blend to read simple words
- Practise letter formation
- Write for purposes such as shopping lists for the three little pigs and food to help grandma get better in Little Red Riding Hood
- Role play writing

Let's share a story

Maths

- Count in sequence
- Count with correct one-to-one correspondence, counting the three bears, three little pigs, counting leaves on a beanstalk
- Name and describe shapes, shapes on the cottage, shapes in the giant's castle, shapes
- Use the correct language of size to describe the three billy goats gruff
- Sort objects into two distinctive groups, sorting cows and pigs, shapes by colour and shape

The World

- Talk about their favourite teddy bear they have at home
- Talk about photographs of their own homes and compare with others
- Talk about why their grandmas/Nanas are special to them
- Explore the outside area including the forest area

Expressive Arts and Design

- Experiment with mixing colours to create pictures from the stories
- Explore a range of media to make pig, wolf and troll faces
- Use creative and imaginative ideas through role play, stories and Small World play